"Open Adjustment" Disclosure: This office utilizes an "open adjusting" environment for ongoing patient care. "Open adjusting" involves several patients being seen in the same adjusting room at the same time. Patients are within sight of one another and some ongoing routine details of care are discussed within earshot of other patients and staff. This environment is used for ongoing care and this is NOT the environment used for taking patient histories, providing examinations or presenting reports of findings. These procedures are completed in a private, confidential setting. The use of this format is intended to make your experience with our office more efficient and productive as well as to enhance your access to quality health care and health information. If you choose not to be adjusted in an open adjusting environment other arrangements will be made for you. If at any time you desire a private consultation on a routine visit, arrangements will be made to accommodate your request.

Incidental Disclosures: We may use or disclose your private health information to provide you with:

1. appointment reminders (such as voicemail, postcards, e-mail, or letters)
2. Newsletters via e-mail and/or mail
3. patient success stories
4. referral thank you board acknowledgements
5. patient pictures
6. record of visit on our sign-in sheet

PATIENT RIGHTS

Access: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You may request that we provide photocopies. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of this Notice. We will charge you a reasonable cost-based fee for expenses such as copies and staff time. You may also request access by sending us a letter to the address at the end of this Notice. If you request copies, we will charge you 25¢ for each page, $30 per hour for staff time to locate and copy your health information, and postage if you want the copies mailed to you. If you request an alternative format we will charge a cost-based fee for providing health information in that format. If you prefer, we will prepare a summary or an explanation of your health information for a fee. Contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice for a full explanation of our fee structure.

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and certain other activities, for the last 6 years, but not before April 14, 2003. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests.

Restriction: You have the right to request we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your health information. (You must make your request in writing.) Your care is in no way conditional to your acceptance of our privacy practices. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency).

Alternative Communication: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations. (You must make your request in writing.) Your request must specify the alternative means and/or location, and provide satisfactory explanation how payments will be handled under the alternative means and/or location you request.

Amendment: You have the right to request that we amend your health information. (You must make your request in writing and it must explain why the information should be amended.) We may deny your request under certain circumstances.

Electronic Notice: If you receive this Notice on our Web site or by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive this Notice in written form.

QUESTIONS AND COMPLAINTS

If you want more information about our privacy practices or have questions or concerns, please contact us.

If you are concerned that we may have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we made about access to your health information or in response to a request you made to amend or restrict the use or disclosure of your health information or to have us communicate with you by alternative means or at alternative locations, you may complain to us using the contact information at the end of this Notice. You also may submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address to file your complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services upon request.

We support your right to privacy of your health information. We will not retaliate in any way if you choose to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

This notice is effective as of April 14, 2003. My signature acknowledges that I have received a copy of this notice.

Insurance Update

Please be advised that this office and its agents make no assurances, inferences, nor guarantees regarding your insurance coverage. Although we may participate with an insurance carrier, it is simply impossible for this office to be aware of, nor versed in, each particular plan's coverage, as there are a multitude of insurance plans and coverage particulars.

Our office will do its best to provide you with the necessary information (such as diagnosis and treatment codes); however it is incumbent upon you, the patient, to verify any insurance coverage regarding treatment in our office. It is your insurance coverage and therefore your responsibility to ascertain benefits.

Certainly our staff will make every effort to assist with the insurance questions. Each plan is different and the contract negotiated by your employer may contain restrictions that others do not. You are responsible to know these restrictions. We are aware of the many frustrations of the managed care system and will do our best to assist you.

Thank you for your understanding.
